

GUIDE FOR ACCOUNTABILITY GROUPS

PURPOSE

“As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another.” – Proverbs 27:17

Christian accountability groups exist for the purpose sharpening our “blunt edges” so that we look more and more like Christ in character and conduct.

Christian accountability groups are NOT meant to be a system of punishment or being kept “in-check.” They are for building up and encouraging one another to grow in Christ-likeness. Sometimes accountability groups can carry the connotation of being places where we’re required to share our deepest darkest sins and then uphold to high moral standards. This can result in fear becoming the driving factor and motivation for accountability.

“But perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment.” – 1 John 4:18

Accountability groups should always be operating out of the perfect love of Christ. Holding each other accountable when we have moral or personal failures is not simply to keep in line with moral standards or codes but for wanting to look more like Jesus and live into the righteousness that he has already bestowed upon us. Accountability should not be rooted in a sense of indebtedness and guilt but out of sheer obedience and love for Christ and wanting to help others to do the same. The process of sharpening and growth can be painful which is why it is so vital that accountability relationships are built on love and encouragement rather than judgment, condemnation, and rebuke.

FINDING A PARTNER/ GROUP

It is often easiest to simply ask a friend or someone you know well to do this with you, but the goal of accountability groups is not necessarily to find friends or become better friends. Of course, that doesn’t mean it can’t or shouldn’t happen but it’s more important to find someone who has a shared desire of wanting to “sharpen” others and be “sharpened” in their pursuit of Christ-likeness.

Suggested size of groups is 2-4. You’re encouraged to find your own partner/group.

Timeframe

We suggest being intentional about how long you will meet, ie. frequency, length of meeting, and end date. Doing so sets the clear expectation that this for a set season in each of your lives and allows for more feasible goals and expectations to be met.

Ground Rules

Establish ground rules to create a safe environment for everyone. A few examples are below:

1. Be honest
2. Be respectful
3. Be committed
4. Be teachable
5. Be humble
6. Be quick to listen and slow to speak, slow to get angry

GOAL

What is the goal of your group? The goal is to come away looking more like Christ but given the agreed upon timeframe that your group will meet, what are you hoping for? Think about this and share with your group the first time you meet and set reachable goals i.e. I want to be having more consistent times of prayer by the end of the x number of weeks.

WHAT TO DO WHEN YOU MEET

Initial Meeting

1. Open with prayer
